Date: Oktober 4-5 2019

AFA participation:

ARSfilm of amateurs / AFA / is an international competition that can be attended by authors and authors' teams from the Czech Republic and abroad with their video programs, which were created on a non-commercial basis and correspond to the categories of the competition, meet the technical conditions and they have not already participated in this contest in the past or have not entered it. Students of the 1st and 2nd year of high film schools, academies, mass media faculties, etc. and universities with a focus on related film categories can also participate. There is no limit to the number of entries from one author. Movies recommended by the selection committee which meet the requirements of the artistic quality and corresponding to the AFA Statute, go to competition projection.

Contest Categories:

In accordance with the Statute, the AFA accepts films and video programs that correspond to the competition categories:

- I. creation of Art - Includes films from all fields of art
- II. animation - pictures taken by all animation techniques
- III. videoart and experimental images
- IV. ethnographic films (no images with recordings from the performances are accepted etc.)

Technical conditions for participation:

The recording must be recorded in PAL (50i, 25p). Minimum SD resolution (720x576), maximum FullHD (1920x1080).

The formats avi, mpg2, mp4 are accepted electronically. Movies are received physically on DVDs or BDs, either as DVD video (BD), or data format on carrier (avi, mpeg2, mp4). There must be no other record on the medium, only the competition film.

The carrier must have the necessary image identification and author (name, address, title and length of the image, etc.). The duration of work must not exceed 20 minutes. In exceptional cases, the selection board may exempt the length of the movie.

The responsibility for complying with copyrights and other laws is to the applicant. The contest organizer reserves the right to exclude from the competition materials that do not correspond to the specifications or are otherwise defective. Organizers do not accept responsibility for loss or damage of package by shipment.

Economic security:

The accommodation is paid by the ČSFV for the authors of works accepted in the competition (for collective work just one of the authors). Other participants can arrange accommodation at their own expense on the basis of a binding accommodation request received in due time.

For each filed entry, the participant will pay to the AFA's main organizer a participation fee and will provide proof of payment at the same time as submitting the application to the competition. Without paying this fee, the image cannot be accepted for competition and returned to the author by post. The author must then pick up the film in person within two months from the end of the competition, otherwise it becomes the property of the organizer.
